There was an accumulation of buying orders over the holiday, interests concentrating largely in shippings, olfs, unitors, sugars and tobaccos. United States Stole made no initial change, but hardened later with equipments, especially Pressed Steel Car and American Car. In the zaliway group Canadian Pacific, Union Pacific, Reading and New York Central made substantial additions to gains of the early week. NEW YORK, May 7.—After opening 8 points lower to 15 points higher, the cetton market sold about 20 to 24 points above Monday's closing, with October seiling at 25.826 during today's early trading, owing to reports of excessive rains in the belt, covering and Liverpool buying.

GRAIN MARKETS

Higher Hogs Causes Fresh Buying of Corn-Oats Are Rather Weak.

CHICAGO, May 7.—New advances in the value of corn resulted today from further record-breaking high prices on hogs. Opening prices, which ranged from ½ off to ½ c advance with July $1.69½ to $1.70 and September $1.63½ to $1.64½, were followed by a quick setback and then an upturn higher than before. Commission house selling made oats relatively weak. After opening unchanged to ½c up with July 70%c to 70%c, the market averaged somewhat lower than yesterday's finish. # WEERLY SUMMARY. WASHINGTON, May 7.—Summary of weather and crop report for week ended May 6: "Seasonable temperatures and moderate rainfall were favorable for cotton over most districts and crop made satisfactory to very good progress, although moderate rains would be beneficial in some localities. Planting is nearly completed, except in the northwest portion of the belt, where it is progressing favorably. The stand is generally satisfactory in most localities. Cotton made average progress in southern Texas and there was improvement in the northern portion of the state." NO AGE LIMIT UPON MISCELLANEOUS FLYING, IS OPINION

LONDON, May 7. (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The fact that only young men capable of passing severe physical tests were accepted for aviation work during the war has caused the belief that flying as a sport will be barred to persons past the prime of youth. That is a mistake, according to British experts, who say that for ordinary peace-time flying there should be no age limit. The only qualifications they set are good eyesight and a sound heart.

Flying an airplane, it is pointed out, is much simpler, far less nerve-racking than driving an automobile or sailing a yacht. Any man who has lived a decent open-air life, especially if he has played games and hunted, will find that learning to fly, even at the age of 50, is quite an easy business, experts say. A modern airplane will virtually fly itself, and the controls are so arranged that a man, even on his first trip, it is argued, does the right thing instinctively.

In the early days of the war fully be per cent of British airmen were over 30 years old. As the art of acrisi warfare developed the pilot had to prove himself proficient in bombing, wireless telegraphy, formation flying, cloud navigation and the numerous stunis that became ersential for the air fighter. This was the phase of war flying that called for iron nerve and fear blindness, eliminating all aspirants except the young. shade higher. Eggs firm: receipts, 63,743 cases. to imbibe 76,800,000 drinks in less thay three months.

There are about 2,256,000 men, women and children in the state. E. J. Lynch, internal revenue collector, who has compiled the interesting statistics, says there are more than 35 drinks available for every resident if the cleanup is to be made by July 1.

He adds, however, that the state's storage stock will "certainly not" be wiped out when the nation goes dry. There were 1,200,000 gallons of whisky in Minnesota when his latest official totals were compiled. Local dealers estimated that there are 64 "normal drinks" in a gallon, hence the 76,800,000 drinks available. Lynch says there are about 50,000 Lynch says there are about 50,000 able-bodied drinkers" in this state. "Of course they won't attempt to consume this huge supply." he added.

Chicago—After thoroughly digesting Mr. Barnes' speech, tradera as a rule became convinced that it was largely neutral, as it contained many bullish and bearish factors. Those who were short, after hearing Mr. Barnes say that one year's crop was not sufficient to revictual Europe, because uneasy and at the first opportunity rushed to cover. An attempt to check the selling by those who took a bearish view of the remarks failed. The market is so nervous that sharp fluctuations are to be expected and frequently it takes little buying or selling to start them in either direction, depending largely upon pit conditions.—Wagner & Co.
